

deductibles and copayment as inpatient hospital services for physical disorders.

PART B PROVISIONS

Outpatient psychotherapy for children and the initial 5 outpatient visits for treatment of mental illness or substance abuse of an individual over age 18 have a 20-percent copayment. Subsequent therapy for adults would remain subject to the 50 percent copayment.

The following intensive community-based services are available for 90 days per year with a 20-percent copayment (except as noted below): Partial hospitalization; psychiatric rehabilitation; day treatment for substance abuse; day treatment under age 19; in home services; case management; and ambulatory detoxification.

Case management would be available with no copayment and for unlimited duration for "an adult with serious mental illness, a child with a serious emotional disturbance, or an adult or child with a serious substance abuse disorder (as determined in accordance with criteria established by the Secretary)."

Day treatment for children under age 19 would be available for up to 180 days per year.

Additional days of service to complete treatment can be used from intensive residential days. The cost of providing the additional days of service, however, could not exceed the actuarial value of days of intensive residential services.

A non-physician mental health or substance abuse professional is permitted to supervise the individualized plan of treatment to the extent permitted under State law. A physician remains responsible for the establishment and periodic review of the plan of treatment.

Any program furnishing these services (whether facility-based or freestanding) must be legally authorized under State law or accredited by an accreditation organization approved by the Secretary in consultation with the State. They must meet standards established by the Secretary for the management of such services.

THE CATO INSTITUTE'S DRUG DECEPTION

HON. GERALD B.H. SOLOMON

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 6, 1995

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to bring attention to the truth about proposed legalization-decriminalization policies. Members have recently heard from the CATO Institute announcing a policy forum questioning the usefulness of continuing "the unwinnable war" on drugs. This forum is clearly just a thinly-veiled attempt to legitimize CATO's own prolegalization position.

However, what CATO refuses to publicly acknowledge are the devastating results of legalization-decriminalization policy, as evidenced in the Netherlands, where such a policy has been in place since the early 1980's. The president of the Dutch National Committee on Drug Prevention, K.F. Gunning, M.D., reports that crime and drug use have skyrocketed since the implementation of legalization in the Netherlands. According to the Dutch Government, their legalization-decriminalization has resulted in: A 250-percent increase in drug use since 1993; a doubling of marijuana use by students since 1988; armed robberies up by 70 percent; shootings up by 40 percent; car thefts up by 60 percent.

The number of registered addicts in the Netherlands has risen 22 percent in the past 5 years, and there were 25,000 new addicts in 1993 alone. In addition, the number of organized crime groups in the Netherlands has increased from 3 in 1988 to 93 in 1993. For good reason, the American public has zero tolerance for legalization schemes.

Mr. Speaker, drug legalization has clearly been a disastrous mistake for the Netherlands. If organizations like CATO achieve their goals, drug legalization will worsen the crime and drug problem in America as well.

IN HONOR OF HERIBERTO QUINDE-OBANDO

HON. THOMAS J. MANTON

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 6, 1995

Mr. MANTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Heriberto Quinde-Obando, a gentleman I am proud to represent in the Seventh Congressional District of New York.

Mr. Speaker, on March 16, I had the pleasure of joining Mr. Quinde-Obando and members of his family in my Washington office to celebrate Mr. Quinde-Obando's 80th birthday.

Mr. Speaker, for more than half of his 80 years, Mr. Quinde-Obando has lived in Woodside, Queens, which is part of my District. Mr. Quinde-Obando began his life in Guayaquil, Ecuador in South America. He moved to New York City in 1948 where he started a new life and began his career as an electronics technician. Mr. Quinde-Obando is well known for his contributions to his community and involvement in a number of civic organizations. Mr. Quinde-Obando's achievements demonstrate the great success immigrants have had in this country and his selfless devotion to our community serves as a shining example for all of us to follow.

Mr. Quinde-Obando has been particularly involved in the New York Intercontinental Lions Club since 1982. At the New York Intercontinental Lions Club, Mr. Quinde-Obando has successfully held several executive positions including director, chairman for social events, chairman of the health fair, club secretary, third, second, and first vice president, and president. He was selected Lion of the Year in 1984 and has received many other honors from his fellow Lions over the years. Mr. Quinde-Obando became a member of Lions International in 1980.

In addition to his charitable work, Mr. Quinde-Obando is a recognized leader within the Hispanic American community in Queens, helping unite his fellow Hispanic American neighbors on many issues important to Queens. He served as the president of the Queens Hispanic Day Parade Committee in 1992 and was also a member of the Hispanic task force in 1990. As a member of the Hispanic task force, Mr. Quinde-Obando was instrumental in helping retain Federal funds for transportation, education, job training, and housing.

Mr. Quinde-Obando also has served on the Woodside senior citizens advisory board and is a member of St. Sebastian's Parish. Having met many members of the Quinde family, I know that Heriberto Quinde-Obando has also been a loving and dedicated husband, father, and grandfather.

Mr. Speaker, I know that my colleagues will join me in commending Heriberto Quinde-Obando for his outstanding service to his family, church, and community.

TRIBUTE TO DAVID B. CRABIEL

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 6, 1995

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, on Sunday, April 30, 1995, Mr. David B. Crabiel, director of New Jersey's Middlesex County's Board of Chosen Freeholders, will be presented the Hubert H. Humphrey Friend of Labor Award at the 4th annual Middlesex AFL-CIO awards and scholarship brunch.

Mr. Speaker, it is a great honor to pay tribute to David Crabiel, a dedicated family man who has, since he became the youngest member of the Milltown Rescue Squad at age 16, selflessly dedicated his adult life to public and community service. Having been in public service as an elected official in various positions since 1960, Mr. Crabiel has held himself to an exemplary standard of citizenry.

Entering public life as a councilman, in 1967 Mr. Crabiel was elected mayor of Milltown, a position in which he served for 11 years before being appointed to the Middlesex County Board of Chosen Freeholders. Elected a freeholder after his appointed term expired, Mr. Crabiel served on the board through 1991 and was reelected in 1993. Wielding a distinguished record of leadership and service, he has, unsurprisingly, risen to a leadership position on the board, where he currently serves as Freehold director.

While this record is impressive by itself, it tells only have the story. In addition to the public positions he has held, Mr. Crabiel has generously donated his talents to several different community causes. To cite just a few examples, he has served as honorary chairman of the Melvin H. Motolinsky Research Foundation, as a member of the board of directors of the Cerebral Palsy Association, and as honorary cochair of the Middlesex County Human Relations Commission.

Mr. Speaker, it is a great pleasure and honor for me to pay tribute to a man whose life has been dedicated to the betterment of his community and the service to others. Personifying altruism through public and community service, Mr. Crabiel has truly set a standard which members of all communities would do well to follow.

TRIBUTE TO BILL NYSTROM

HON. BARBARA B. KENNELLY

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 6, 1995

Mrs. KENNELLY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of Mr. Bill Nystrom, who passed away after a lifetime of service to his community, State and country.

A distinguished veteran, he served in Europe from the Siegfried Line to the meeting of the Russians, and earned a Silver Star for his efforts.

Mr. Nystrom, a distinguished member of American Legion Post 197, was an artist, writer and sculptor who enriched the community of Marlborough with his work. As a sign of his commitment to his community, he designed the Marlborough Town Hall Monument, the bi-centennial emblem and the town seal.

Active in the American Legion and his church, he wrote both the post's and his church's newsletters, and for many years composed the details of their Memorial Day ceremony. It is very fitting that this year his memory will be honored at the Memorial Day ceremony—a day forever linked with his years of service.

During this year's ceremony, Mrs. Esther Nystrom will lay a wreath at the Marlborough Town Hall Monument in tribute to her late husband. As we honor those who served our Nation in the Armed Forces, it is fitting we remember one who served not only his country, but his community so well.

TRIBUTE TO JAMES C. CARR

HON. BART STUPAK

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 6, 1995

Mr. STUPAK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to my friend and law enforcement colleague, James C. Carr, who in February of this year retired from his post as undersheriff for Leelanau County, in Michigan's First Congressional District. Undersheriff Carr had held his position for the last 10 years and retires with the admiration of all who have known him.

Our paths criss-crossed 17 years ago when Jim and I were members of the Michigan State Police, assigned to the State Capital Post No. 1616. I retired from the State Police in 1984 and left Jim to continue serving our citizens. A short time later Jim joined me in retirement, but as fate would have it, both of us went back to serving the citizens of the great State of Michigan.

Little did Jim know at the time of his retirement that he was destined to give 10 more years of his life to law enforcement and the people of Leelanau County. When Jim first retired, Sheriff Charles Johnson knew that Jim would be a perfect candidate for undersheriff and asked him to share his law enforcement professionalism and skills with the people of Leelanau County. As a result, Jim has been Sheriff Johnson's faithful undersheriff for the past 10 years.

The job of undersheriff is a difficult and challenging one. Jim, however, always handled it with ease. It is not for this reason, however, that I wish to pay tribute to him. Rather, it is because when one goes out on the street in Leelanau County, it becomes apparent how much admiration and respect Jim commands of the people which he served. It is easy to find people who are pleased to stop and tell stories about a positive encounter they had with Undersheriff Carr, about how Undersheriff Carr fixed a problem, about how he went about his job with a degree of professionalism and compassion that made his sheriff, the citizens of Leelanau County, and those of us who were privileged to serve him, or to be served by him, very proud. We are all proud that he is "our cop."

Jim has always been an avid sportsman. I hope that he will enter into retirement in search of that "perfect buck" or that "perfect fish." If Jim pursues his hobbies the way he handled his professional life, I'm sure he'll find both. Thank you for your service Jim. We will all miss you, "old friend."

Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

FEDERAL WORKERS

SPEECH OF

HON. ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON

OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 5, 1995

Ms. NORTON. Mr. Speaker, do you have to represent Federal workers in order to believe they ought to be treated just like other Americans?

Federal workers have lost $9.6 billion in pay and benefits over the last 5 years. Find me any other workers who have lost in that way. That was real money, cutting corners, often through stealth paybacks. Every year these people get a statutory pay cut. I cannot remember the last time that we gave Federal workers the statutory pay raise to which they are entitled. Now we want to steal from their retirement.

It is a brazen pay cut, because the contract they have is that they earn less in compensation in order to get more in retirement. It is a zero-sum gain and they are coming out more and more like zero.

What in the world is this doing in a tax cut bill? Because there is insult and injury here, to cut retirements for some in order to cut taxes for others. My dear colleagues, fairness should begin at home with the people who serve you as Federal workers.
